

REMARKS

Claims 4-11, 20 and 22-35 stand allowed. In the interest of expediting prosecution and allowance of the application, Applicant has cancelled all remaining rejected claims. This application is therefore in condition for allowance. Claims 1-3 and 12-19 have been canceled without prejudice to the re-filing of these claims in a continuation application. The Applicant respectfully requests reconsideration and review of the application as presently amended.

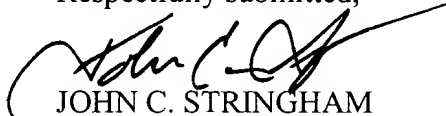

The Examiner also rejected claim 14 under 35 U.S.C. § 112 (second paragraph). In that claim 14 has been cancelled, the Examiner's § 112 rejection is now moot.

Applicant respectfully requests reconsideration of the application in view of the above. Applicant further respectfully suggests that in light of the above, the case is now in a condition for allowance.

CONCLUSION

In view of the response and amendments submitted herein, Applicant respectfully submits that the application is now in condition for allowance. Therefore, reconsideration is requested and allowance is respectfully solicited. In the event that the Examiner finds any remaining impediment to a prompt allowance of this application that could be clarified in a telephonic interview, the Examiner is respectfully invited to initiate the same with the undersigned attorney.

Respectfully submitted,
